CHRIS WALLER

Head Coach
2nd Season, 19th Overall
UCLA '91

Chris Waller begins his second year as head coach and 19th year overall at UCLA in 2021. Waller was named UCLA Gymnastics' seventh head coach on May 8, 2019.

Waller's first season was unprecedented, as he guided the Bruins not only through a new coaching staff but through an unfinished season that was cut short before the last regular season meet due to COVID-19. Before the suspension of the season, Waller led UCLA to a 10-3 record and a No. 3 national team ranking and a No. 1 team ranking on floor. He also guided Kyla Ross to the No. 1 ranking on uneven bars for the fourth consecutive year and to the Honda Sport Award as the nation's top gymnast.

Waller served on the UCLA Gymnastics coaching staff as an assistant or associate head coach for 17 years, helping to guide UCLA to four NCAA Championships (2003, 2004, 2010, 2018). In his first season on staff in 2003, the Bruins swept through the postseason, winning Pac-10, NCAA Regional and NCAA Championships. Also that year, he was the acting head coach when UCLA snapped the longest home-court winning streak in NCAA history for any sport, handing Utah its first home loss in 23 years. In 2004, he helped coach the Bruins to a repeat championship, winning in record-setting fashion. Waller was voted by his peers the National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2004 and the West Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2018.

Along with his collegiate coaching success, Waller had tremendous success as a club coach, coaching UCLA alumna Mohini Bhardwaj to a spot on the U.S. Olympic team in 2004. Bhardwaj was team captain of the squad that won a silver medal, competing in the all-around during prelims and on three of four events in the team final. She also qualified for the floor exercise finals, placing sixth. Additionally, Waller coached two other Bruins to elite success, helping guide Vanessa Zamarripa to a U.S. National Team spot in 2010 after her junior season at UCLA, and coaching current freshman Margzetta Frazier as she competed under UCLA at the 2018 U.S. Championships.

One of the United States' all-time gymnastics greats, Waller was a member of the National Team from 1989-97 and captured the U.S. all-around crown in 1991 and pommel horse titles from 1991-93. He was an all-around finalist at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona and took fifth on the pommel horse, just one-tenth of a point away from the gold medal. In addition, Waller placed in the Top 6 on the pommel horse at the 1993 World Championships and won three medals at the 1990 Goodwill Games and a team gold at the 1995 Pan American Games. He was inducted into the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame in 2003.

At UCLA, Waller earned four All-America honors and helped the Bruins capture the NCAA title in 1987. He also won individual titles on the pommel horse in 1989 and the high bar in 1990. Every year from 1989-1993, Waller won either a U.S. or NCAA national title.

Waller, who graduated from UCLA in 1991, had 15 years of prior coaching experience before joining the UCLA staff and was selected the 2002 Southern California Level 7 Male Coach of the Year. He also served as a member of the USA Gymnastics Executive Committee and the 2000 Olympic team selection committee and chaired the Athlete's Council.

Waller and his wife Cindy, both UCLA graduates, are co-owners of Waller's GymJam Academy in Santa Clarita. Their oldest daughter Alex is a UCLA graduate and was a two-time Scholastic All-American and member of the Bruin team for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Their youngest daughter Lilia is a senior on the team.

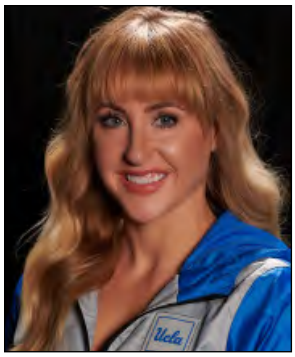
What They're Saying …

"Chris Waller has been an integral member of the UCLA Gymnastics coaching staff for the past 17 seasons, helping to build the culture of the program to where it is today, and playing a major role in the team's success. As a Bruin All-American, NCAA Champion, U.S. Olympian and Olympic coach, Chris has a strong pedigree and is recognized as one of the top technical coaches in America. He is incredibly deserving of the opportunity to lead UCLA Gymnastics into the future as our head coach.""

- Dan Guerrero, former UCLA Athletic Director

"I believe Chris embodies exactly what it means to be a Bruin: family, integrity, developing internal motivation, teaching and coaching the entire person, not just as an athlete. He is a true leader in the most positive and motivating manner. Chris truly cares about the path and journey in life while focusing on enjoying and learning from the experience. I cannot think of anyone better suited than Chris Waller for UCLA's women's gymnastics head coaching position."

- Mohini Bhardwaj, UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame member and 2004 U.S. Olympic medalist



KRISTINA COMFORTE

Associate Head Coach
2nd Season
UCLA '10

Former UCLA All-American and U.S. National Team member Kristina Comforte begins her second season as associate head coach.

The Bruins' balance beam coach, Comforte guided Grace Glenn to a historic feat on Feb. 23, as Glenn became the first gymnast in NCAA history to score a perfect 10 on beam from the leadoff position. Glenn, along with Kyla Ross, earned first-team All-America honors on the event during the shortened 2020 season, and UCLA finished the regular season ranked No. 3 overall and No. 5 on beam.

Comforte, a five-time All-American and a 2008 Pac-12 All-Academic selection, competed at UCLA from 2006-08. As a freshman, she scored a perfect 10 on vault and was runner-up on vault at the NCAA Championships. In 2008, she won the balance beam title at the NCAA Southeast Regionals and was second on uneven bars at the NCAA Championships. Injuries forced her to retire from competition at the start of her senior year in 2009, and Comforte moved into an undergraduate assistant coach role. In 2010, she helped guide the Bruins to a NCAA title.

Following her graduation in 2010, Comforte worked at CAA Sports in Chicago for three years and then returned to gymnastics as the head coach at TAG USA Gymnastics in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. She was an assistant coach at the University of Illinois in 2017, serving as the team's main vault and floor coach and primary choreographer. That season, Comforte helped coach the Illini to the second-highest floor score in school history (49.450). She coached Level 7-10s on floor and vault at Illinois Gymnastics Institute from 2018-19.

Comforte holds a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology and completed her Master's Degree in Organizational Leadership from The Chicago School of Professional Psychology in 2018.

DOM PALANGE

Assistant Coach
2nd Season, 5th Overall

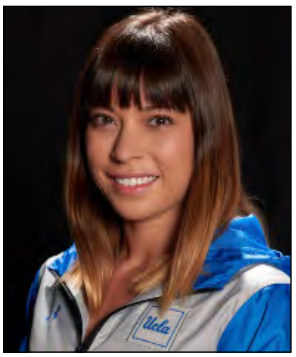
Dom Palange, who was a volunteer assistant coach for UCLA Gymnastics from 2014-16, returns for his second season as the Bruins' assistant coach.

Palange, the vault and floor exercise coach, guided UCLA to a No. 1 national ranking on floor and a No. 5 ranking on vault in 2020. A Bruin scored a perfect 10 on each event - Gracie Kramer with her first-ever on floor and Kyla Ross on vault, her 22nd and final career perfect 10.

During his previous stint at UCLA, Palange coached the Bruins on floor exercise in 2016 and on balance beam in 2014 and 2015, coaching Samantha Peszek to the NCAA beam title in 2015. He helped guide the Bruins to the 2016 Pac-12 title and the 2015 NCAA Regional title. He also coached at Waller's GymJam Academy from 2013-16.

The Massachusetts native began gymnastics at age 3 and trained at Sterling Academy of Gymnastics, where he became a multiple state and Region 6 floor and vault champion. At age 17, he switched to competing and coaching All Star cheerleading. After graduating from high school, he moved to Miami, Fla. to join Top Gun All Stars, where he won two World Championship titles and two third-place finishes, along with multiple national titles. Palange also coached teams to several National titles from 2008-12.

From 2009-10, Palange attempted a comeback in gymnastics, training with World Champion and Olympic medalist Danell Leyva, but officially retired from competing in 2010.



BJ DAS

Volunteer Assistant Coach
2nd Season

Professional choreographer and dancer BJ Das begins her second season as UCLA Gymnastics' volunteer assistant coach.

Das' choreography on floor exercise gained big notoriety, as Nia Dennis' routine to a Beyonce medley went viral and landed her a guest spot on the Ellen Show. The Bruins ranked No. 1 in the nation on floor exercise, and their team score of 49.8, set Feb. 23, was the nation's highest event score on any apparatus all season.

As a professional dancer, Das has performed live with Beyonce, P!nk and Usher and toured with Avril Lavigne. Her music video credits include Beyonce's "Run the World (Girls)", Ariana Grande's "Baby I" and Justin Bieber/Nicki Minaj's "Beauty and a Beat". Das has also performed live at the 2019 Grammy Awards, the 2018 American Music Awards and on the Ellen Show, The Voice and Late Show with James Corden, among others. Additionally, Das has choreographed for TV shows GLOW, Fresh Off the Boat and The Masked Singer, along with the Emmy Awards and Radio Disney Music Awards. Her first Hollywood experience was as a gymnast on the movie Stick It. Das has been signed to Bloc Talent Agency as a dancer and choreographer since 2007.

Das was the volunteer assistant coach and choreographer at the University of Utah in 2019, when the Utes ranked in the Top 5 in the nation on floor exercise.

A 2006 graduate of the University of Washington, Das earned her Bachelor's degree in psychology. She competed on the Husky gymnastics team for two years.

KYLA ROSS

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

After completing one of the most successful competitive careers in NCAA history, Kyla Ross will wrap up her UCLA career as an undergraduate assistant coach.

The 2020 Honda Sport Award winner and two-time Pac-12 and Region Gymnast of the Year, Ross is the only gymnast in UCLA history to win four individual NCAA event titles, capturing the 2017 bars and beam titles and the 2019 vault and floor crowns. She made history in 2017 by becoming the first woman ever to win NCAA, World and Olympic gold, and in 2019, she became the first gymnast in NCAA history to record two Gym Slams in one season, scoring at least two perfect 10s on all four events. With 22 career perfect 10s, Ross set NCAA records for consecutive meets with a perfect 10 (10 in 2019), most 10s in a season (14 in 2019), and most career perfect 10s on uneven bars (11).

Ross, who is majoring in molecular, cell and developmental biology, was a member of the U.S. gold medal-winning squad at the 2012 Olympics and won five World Championship medals in her career, including team gold in 2014.

Meet 10 - vs. California (Mar. 8)

In what turned into the final meet of the season, UCLA defeated No. 9 California, 197.900-196.725. The Bruins started the meet with a bang, with a pair of stuck vaults by Nia Dennis (9.85) and Gracie Kramer (career-high 9.95), and closed with dynamite, as Kyla Ross nailed her first perfect 10 of the season on vault to help UCLA earn a season-high vault score of 49.575. A 49.600 on floor in the final rotation put the Bruins just on the edge of a 198 score, as they finished with a 197.900. Dennis and Felicia Hano led the way with meet-winning scores of 9.950, with Dennis earning a perfect 10 from one of the two judges.

After being voted the pre-season No. 1, UCLA watched as Georgia assumed the role of favorites during the regular season. But when it counted the most, the Bruins proved they were worthy of their early ranking by winning their first-ever NCAA Championship.

Before UCLA even began its competition at the Super Six Team Finals, the door had opened. As the Bruins were taking a first-rotation bye, Georgia was stumbling on beam, counting two falls to essentially take the Gym Dogs out of the running. The pressure then shifted to the Bruins, who would follow on the dreaded beam.

But the Bruins were undaunted by the pressure. Leadoff competitor Susie Erickson hit a career-high 9.85 to start the ball rolling. A fall in the third position put a scare into the Bruins, but they rallied to hit their routines - Leah Homma for a 9.8, Luisa Portocarrero for a 9.825, and Stella Umeh with a spectacular 9.925 - to take themselves safely past the most nerve-racking event in the competition with a score of 49.2.

UCLA entered its third event, vault, in third place behind Michigan and Arizona State. The Bruins improved their position with strong vaulting and moved into a tie with Michigan with one rotation remaining - UCLA on bars and Michigan on floor.

With Michigan faltering on floor, the Bruins needed a 49.25 to surpass ASU for the championship. Deborah Mink started with a 9.825. Kiralee Hayashi followed with a 9.85. Lena Degteva nailed a 9.875, and Umeh followed with a 9.925. Freshman Heidi Moneymaker needed just a 9.775 to clinch the championship and scored that and more with a 9.925. Homma's 9.95 to close the competition punctuated the evening for the Bruins, who totaled a season-high 197.15, three-tenths better than ASU. The championship was the first ever for UCLA and the first for any school outside of Utah, Georgia or Alabama.

It was a dream season for the 2000 UCLA Gymnastics Team. The Bruins started the season strong with school-record performances in the beginning of the year, and ended the season unstoppable as Pac-10, Regional and NCAA Champions.

UCLA's national championship run began in earnest at the NCAA Regional meet. After impressive performances on floor (49.55), vault (49.5) and bars (49.4), UCLA had already reached 148+ with just beam to go and looked well on its way to another regional championship in a runaway. It wasn't quite a runaway, as three Bruin falls on the beam made it interesting, but UCLA's lead was so large that it didn't matter. The Bruins placed first with a score of 197.025, .85 better than second-place Oregon State.

At the team preliminaries of the NCAA Championship, the Bruins were able to get back on their No. 1 nemesis right away, starting on the balance beam. UCLA conquered its demons, with all six gymnasts hitting their routines to give UCLA a 49.05 first-rotation score. From there, the Bruins cruised and ended up hitting 24 for 24 routines to take first place and easily qualify for the Super Six Team Finals.

UCLA received another unfavorable draw for the Super Six, starting on floor and ending on a bye after beam. But this time, the Bruins drew upon their experience at their Regional meet and performed like champions, taking the lead early and never relinquishing it.

The Bruins set the tone right away, scoring a 49.375 on floor behind a leadoff score of 9.85 from Malia Jones and a pair of 9.9s from Mohini Bhardwaj and Heidi Moneymaker. In first place after rotation one, the Bruins then moved to vault, where they scored four 9.9s (Kristin Parker, Lena Degteva, Bhardwaj and Moneymaker) to account for a 49.45 and a seven-tenths lead.

While the Bruins were on a bye in rotation three, Alabama closed to within four-tenths, and Nebraska pulled to within .425. Each subsequent Bruin routine would be critical. On bars, a 9.9 from Degteva and a 9.95 from Bhardwaj brought the Bruins a solid 49.35 score and kept their lead at seven-tenths ahead of Utah, but with the beam remaining.

As the leadoff performer, freshman Doni Thompson gave the Bruins just what they needed - a career-high 9.8. Parker followed with a 9.775, Jones recorded a 9.75, and Moneymaker provided a 9.85. After Degteva dismounted with a 9.825, UCLA knew it had done all it could do to win the title. Bhardwaj capped the meet with a 9.875 and gave UCLA a second consecutive 24 for 24 performance.

The Bruins spent the final rotation on a bye in the locker room and waited as the other schools tried to overtake their 197.3 final score. The closest competitors needed more than 49.725 (9.945 average) to tie. None of the teams came close, and UCLA won its second national title.

UCLA continued its winning ways at the Individual Event Finals, as Bhardwaj won the uneven bars title, and Degteva won the balance beam crown.

2001

The expectations for the 2001 Bruins were sky-high. After all, the Bruins were the defending NCAA Champions and had what was generally considered the most talented team in the history of collegiate gymnastics. But it took more than just talent for UCLA to reach the top of the podium at the NCAA Championships. A strong team commitment, team chemistry, depth, resiliency and a lot of heart brought the Bruins their second consecutive national title.

The quest to repeat started off strongly after a 24-for-24 performance during the preliminary session. UCLA placed first in the afternoon session with a score of 197.625 to advance to the Super Six. Onnie Willis ended the afternoon as the all-around co-leader and saw her score stand during the evening session, making her UCLA's first-ever NCAA all-around champion.

With day one of the Championships over with, the Bruins went into the team finals wearing shirts that read "Win With Our Hearts", and they proceeded to do just that.

The Bruins showed their heart early in the competition. During the first rotation, a fall from the first competitor put the pressure on early, but the team responded with three consecutive scores of 9.9+ to end the floor rotation with a .275 lead over Georgia.

The Bruins increased their lead on vault to .35 after totaling 49.45, thanks to three scores of 9.9 or higher.

The lead evaporated to just one-tenth of a point when two of UCLA's final three competitors on bars made costly errors, and with the Bruins' final rotation being the dreaded balance beam, UCLA had to be flawless. And they were.

As home team Georgia scored a 49.5 on vault, the Bruins matched them score for score. In the leadoff position, Doni Thompson put the winning wheels in motion by starting the set with a career-high 9.9. A fall from UCLA's second competitor put the pressure on, but the Bruins responded and almost fed off the pressure.

Tousek followed with a career-high 9.95, Willis tied her career-high with a 9.9, and Maloney scored a 9.925 to set the stage for Bhardwaj. In familiar territory after having clinched the dual meet win against Georgia at home, Bhardwaj responded with a 9.9, well above the 9.75 she needed to move ahead of Georgia. The Bruins finished with a beam total of 49.575, the second-highest beam mark in school history, and an overall team total of 197.575, .175 ahead of Georgia.

In addition to the team and all-around titles, Tousek won the uneven bars title, and Bhardwaj capped her career by winning the floor exercise championship.

A year after a disappointing third-place finish at the NCAA Championships, UCLA reclaimed its status as the top program in the nation, winning the NCAA title for the third time in four years.

UCLA entered the NCAA Championships in Lincoln, Neb. as the favorite and got through stage one of the Championships by placing first at the preliminaries with a score of 196.95. The Bruins did have to count a fall on beam, leaving definite room for improvement in team finals.

The Bruins were a resilient bunch in team finals. On three of the four events, UCLA had an early fall but never let it faze them, stepping up under pressure to throw out that low score.

Competing in the favored Olympic order, UCLA's night got off to a slow start when the first vaulter fell. However, the rest of the team raised their game a notch and reeled off five straight dynamic vaults to close the set with a team total of 49.35.

UCLA suffered another fall on bars in its next rotation, but again, three straight scores of 9.9 or higher to close the set negated the fall and put the Bruins ahead by two-tenths after two events.

On beam, where UCLA had suffered two falls in prelims, Bruin head coach Valorie Kondos Field employed a brilliant strategic move, putting in the extremely consistent Onnie Willis as the leadoff competitor. In her first ever leadoff performance, Willis was not only steady but spectacular, scoring a 9.925 to set the table perfectly for her teammates. UCLA reeled off scores of 9.9, 9.825, 9.85, 9.95 and 9.9 to earn a final team score of 49.525 and a .475 lead over second-place Georgia.

Heading into the final rotation, UCLA held a three-tenths lead over Alabama and needed to score 48.85 on floor to overtake Georgia. Jeanette Antolin led off with a 9.85, and seniors Kristin Parker and Malia Jones capped off their careers with a 9.875 and 9.9, respectively. A fall by Kate Richardson put some pressure on the Bruins, but with Willis and Jamie Dantzscher on deck, there was little doubt they would respond like champions. Willis earned a 9.9, and Dantzscher clinched the victory by scoring a near-perfect 9.975, which gave UCLA a final total of 197.825, .55 higher than second-place Alabama.

Richardson and Dantzscher shared the uneven bars title at the Individual Event Finals, and Richardson took home the balance beam crown.

As hosts of the NCAA Championships, the Bruins were looking for their fifth title but first on their home turf. The "Drive for Five" started in the preliminary session.

Typical of most of UCLA's past championship years, the Bruins started the meet with a fall on their first routine on vault. But in true UCLA fashion, the Bruins picked themselves up and followed through with stellar performances to discount the low score. UCLA pulled away on uneven bars, scoring a 49.65 after counting five scores of 9.875 or higher, including a 9.975 from Jamie Dantzscher, and finished the session in first place with a score of 197.675.

The Bruins started the Super Six Team Finals on floor, a less than desirable rotation order. For UCLA, however, that rotation order had seen them through NCAA titles in 2000 and 2001. The order proved to be good luck for the Bruins again, and they exceeded all expectations with a stunning record-breaking performance to keep the trophy in Westwood.

After an inconsistent regular season and a relatively shaky start to the post-season with a second-place showing at the Pac-10 Championships and a rocky final rotation at the Regionals, the Bruins picked the best time of the year to put in a near-perfect performance. They hit 24-for-24 routines, with 15 scores of 9.9 or higher and an NCAA Super Six record 198.125 final score.

UCLA started the meet with a 49.525 on floor to take a slight .75 lead over Georgia and extended the lead to .225 after scoring a 49.525 on vault for a two-round total of 99.1. The Bruins pounded out a 49.425 on bars for a three-round total of 148.525. Georgia kept the pressure on, staying .525 behind.

With the unenviable position of finishing the meet on a bye, the Bruins knew they had to score high on beam in rotation five before heading into the locker room. They did that and more, tallying a meet-high 49.6 and leaving it mathematically impossible for anyone to top their 198.125. Freshman Lori Winn kicked things off with a 9.875, and the Bruins never looked back. Christie Tedmon scored a 9.85, Jeanette Antolin and Kate Richardson stepped up with 9.95s, Yvonne Tousek scored a 9.9, and Kristen Maloney slammed the door shut with a 9.925.

"This championship is especially special," said UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field. "First of all, it wasn't easy this year. We had to come out and work hard all season."

"We may have lost meets early on, but we put our egos aside. We trained hard, and we eventually came out on top."

UCLA closed its near-perfect run in postseason competition with a dominating 24-for-24 performance at the NCAA Super Six Team Championships, winning its sixth NCAA title at the site of its first, Gainesville, FL. In the team finals, the Bruins hit every routine without any major mistakes and outscored their nearest competitor by nearly half a point, recording 197.725 to runner-up Oklahoma's 197.25.

The Bruins entered the Championships as the No. 1 seed after dominating performances at Pac-10s and Regionals. But going in as the favorite seemed to put a bit of extra weight on the team, who competed tight during its first two events at the NCAA Preliminaries. At the halfway mark, UCLA was tied for third but used meet-best scores of 49.375 on floor and 49.4 on vault to power ahead of the field in the final two rotations, finishing with a first-place mark of 196.875.

There was no tightness from the Bruins at the Super Six, where UCLA took the lead in rotation one and never relinquished it.

The Bruins got off to a great start on vault in rotation one, scoring 49.475 on the strength of career-highs from Monique De La Torre (9.85 leadoff score) and Brittani McCullough (9.95) and a 9.925 from Vanessa Zamarripa. A 49.325 on uneven bars helped to maintain UCLA's lead at the halfway mark, heading into beam, the team's nemesis earlier in the season. The Bruins showed how far they had come from the beginning of the year, hitting all six routines for scores of 9.8 or better. Leadoff competitor Anna Li started with a 9.875, followed by a 9.9 from Elyse Hopfner-Hibbs. Niki Tom delivered another strong routine with a 9.8, followed by a 9.85 from Aisha Gerber and a 9.9 from Zamarripa. Mizuki Sato closed the set with a 9.85, bringing the Bruins' beam score to 49.375 and their three-event total to 148.175, .275 ahead of Alabama and 49.1 points away from a sixth national title.

On floor exercise in the final rotation, Tauny Frattone led off with one of her best performances of the year, scoring 9.875. After a 9.725 from Tom, Zamarripa and Li each hit 9.9s, leaving it up to McCullough or Hopfner-Hibbs to score 9.7 or better to clinch the title. McCullough had the first attempt and clinched it with a career-high tying 9.925. Hopfner-Hibbs' 9.95 was just icing on the cake and helped bump the Bruins' final floor total to a season-high 49.55 and its team final score to 197.725.

The victories kept coming at Event Finals, where Zamarripa won the vault title and McCullough claimed the floor crown. Zamarripa averaged 9.925 on her two vaults, scoring 9.95 on a stuck Yurchenko layout full and 9.9 on a Yurchenko half on, front layout half, the most difficult vault done in the competition. McCullough earned a 10.0 from one of the six judges on her floor routine and finished with an average score of 9.9375, just above her career-high mark of 9.925.

In one of the greatest comebacks in the history of NCAA competition, UCLA turned in a performance for the ages at the NCAA Super Six Team Final, using a NCAA Championship and school record balance beam score of 49.750 to take the title in St. Louis. The championship was UCLA's seventh overall and first since 2010.

The odds of UCLA coming back from a 0.325 deficit at the halfway mark were slim. The Bruins had put up solid but not huge scores on their first two events and were wrapping up the meet on uneven bars and balance beam.

After an average vault rotation that saw no scores over 9.9 and a team total of 49.2250, something needed to change. The Bruins had a bye in the fourth rotation and went into the locker room in fourth place, 0.325 behind the leaders, two-time defending champion Oklahoma.

Spurred on by an inspiring locker room speech by Associate Head Coach Chris Waller, who reminded the Bruins that they've been training like champions all year and that they "don't quit under any circumstances", UCLA regrouped and went all out in the final two rotations.

On uneven bars, freshman Nia Dennis led off with a 9.8375. Senior JaNay Honest followed with a 9.9 and received a perfect 10 from one of the six judges, her first career perfect 10 score in her last-ever routine. After Anna Glenn's 9.850, Madison Kocian stepped up for just her third uneven bars routine of the year after undergoing labrum surgery in August. Kocian had some struggles in her semifinal performance, scoring 9.775, but in the team final, she scored a season-high 9.9375. Sixth-year senior Christine Peng-Peng Lee was next and was sheer perfection. After hitting her difficult set and sticking her double layout dismount, she was rewarded justly with a perfect 10. Kyla Ross wrapped up the rotation with what looked to be another perfect set with emphatically-held handstands. She earned one perfect 10 score and a final total of 9.95, giving the Bruins a team total of 49.6375, the second-highest bars total in NCAA Championship history.

Christine Peng-Peng Lee scored two perfect 10s

UCLA had closed the gap in the fifth rotation and entered the final event in third place, 0.175 behind the first-place Sooners, who finished up on uneven bars while the Bruins were on balance beam. Oklahoma earned three 9.9+ scores on bars and finished with a score of 49.5375 for a final team total of 198.0375.

The Bruin beam team got off to a tremendous start with a 9.9375 leadoff score from Grace Glenn. Kocian ran into problems in the two spot with a fall and a score of 9.275, putting the pressure on everyone else to stay clean in order to drop that score. But rather than sinking under the pressure, the Bruins thrived. Brielle Nguyen, in her only routine of the night, followed Kocian's fall with a 9.875. Katelyn Ohashi, who had won a share of the floor exercise title the night before, answered with a 9.95. Ross built off that and contributed a 9.9875, earning four of six perfect scores.

It all came down to Lee in the final routine of the night. Although she and most of her teammates did not know at the time, Lee needed to score 9.975 on her final collegiate routine to clinch the victory. What came next was, simply-put, legendary.

Lee hit every element of her routine perfectly, and when she stuck her dismount, she permanently etched her name in Bruin lore. As her teammates celebrated a terrific closing performance, the individual scores came up and signaled a perfect 10 for Lee, her 10th career perfect 10 and her second perfect 20 meet. Then the scoreboard team results updated, showing the Bruins at the top with a final team total of 198.075, just 0.0375 ahead of Oklahoma, setting off a second wave of jubilant celebration. UCLA's NCAA Championship and school record total of 49.750 on the balance beam, of all events, earned the Bruins the title.

"I looked at the scoreboard, and I saw UCLA on top, and I am still in shock," Lee said after the meet. "My tears have not come out yet. I said they're still dancing and having a party in my eyeballs. They have not come out yet, but I'm still in shock about the whole thing. I'm shocked I'm here, shocked we have the trophy, and I couldn't have asked for a better way to end with this team. Personally, I love this team so much and it's been an incredible season."

"I've been doing this at UCLA for 35 years and I have said the last few months and have said repeatedly the last few weeks that in all of my time we've had tremendous teams and tremendous, not just athletes, but student-athletes and people," said UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field. "Which is the reason I feel I have the greatest job in the world. But this team truly is the easiest team that I've ever coached. And that is because this time last year we said if we need, if we want a different result we've got to do things differently and what started that was me and our coaching staff just getting real with them about getting physically fit as you individually can get as making choices outside of the gym, those of a champion. And on and on and they did it. They decided to do it at literally last April, and they've been consistent with it, and because of that my job has been so easy this year. This truly is a dream team."

UCLA has captured 48 national individual titles since 1980, including nine in the last five years. Forty of those titles are NCAA championships, and UCLA ranks No. 2 in the nation in all-time NCAA individual titles.

Bruin gymnasts have not only won national titles, but many have done it in record fashion. Sharon Shapiro won UCLA's first-ever national title and made history at the 1980 AIAW Championships by becoming the first collegiate woman to sweep all four events and the all-around. No gymnast has duplicated that feat since. Kim Hamilton became UCLA's first-ever NCAA champion when she took home the floor exercise crown, the first of an unprecedented three consecutive from 1987-1989. In 1998, Heidi Moneymaker became UCLA's first-ever NCAA bars champion, and in 2001, Onnie Willis was crowned all-around champion, the first for a Bruin at the NCAA Championships. Jamie Dantzscher in 2002 won three titles, becoming the first gymnast in seven years to win as many in one season. Tasha Schwikert became the first UCLA gymnast to win multiple NCAA all-around titles (in 2005 and 2008) and the first in NCAA history to win as both a freshman and a senior. Kyla Ross became the first Bruin and only the second NCAA gymnast ever to win all four individual event titles over her career (2009 vault, 2007 bars, 2007 beam, 2009 floor).

Sharon Shapiro (1980-82)
Hall of Fame Class of 1999

On Oct. 30, 1999, Sharon Shapiro became the first women's gymnastics Hall of Fame inductee. Shapiro enjoyed an illustrious and historic athletic career for the Bruins. She remains the only gymnast ever to capture national titles on all four events and the all-around in the same year, a feat she accomplished at the 1980 AIAW National Championships her freshman season.

In 1981, Shapiro won the prestigious Broderick Award, given to the country's top female gymnast. As a sophomore that season, she defended her all-around title and also won the individual vault crown. The following year, she earned All-America honors in the all-around, vault and balance beam.

Shapiro has remained a key alumna, supporter, and ambassador for UCLA and her sport since her graduation.

Kim Hamilton (1987-90)
Hall of Fame Class of 2000

Kim (Hamilton) Anthony became UCLA's second inductee on Oct. 21, 2000. Like Shapiro, Hamilton also set a national record that has yet to be duplicated when she won three consecutive NCAA floor exercise titles from 1987-1989. She also won the NCAA vault title in 1989.

At the regional level, she won a school-record tying seven titles, including three each in the all-around and floor. She also won Pac-10 championships on bars and floor in both 1989 and 1988. In her career, she earned six All-America honors.

Anthony has also remained a major figure in the sport, having maintained a successful career as a sports commentator for ESPN and Fox Sports and as the host of the Miami TV show "County Connection." She is also an inspirational/motivational speaker, and a mentor to the U.S. national gymnastics team and at-risk high school girls in Miami. Anthony published a book, Unfavorable Odds, a memoir about her journey from a background filled with drugs and violence to a Hall of Fame career at UCLA.

Jill Andrews (1987-90)
Hall of Fame Class of 2001

Jill Andrews was inducted into in the Hall of Fame on Oct. 13, 2001. In 1990, Andrews became UCLA gymnastics' second Honda Award winner, capping off a career in which she won an NCAA title on vault in 1988 and on beam in 1989. Andrews earned eight first-team All-America honors in her career and was a two-time Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year.

Andrews excelled academically as one of UCLA's all-time great student-athletes. In 1990, she earned an NCAA post-graduate scholarship and was awarded the NCAA Top Six Award. In addition, she was a Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. She was also honored by the Bruin gymnastics team with an award named after her, the annual Jill Andrews award for integrity.

Andrews, who graduated from the Northwestern University School of Law in 1994, was a Deputy City Attorney in San Francisco for six years, handling labor and employment litigation on behalf of the city and now works in legal counsel for NXP Semiconductors.

Leah Homma (1994-97)
Hall of Fame Class of 2008

Leah Homma was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Oct. 3, 2008. Homma competed for four years (1994-97), leading the Bruins to their first NCAA team title in 1997. Head Coach Valorie Kondos Field said Homma played "was a quiet leader who always led by example, was an unwavering hard worker, enthusiastic about her training, and always quick to help out her teammates in a quiet and unassuming manner." Homma finished fourth in the 1997 NCAA All-Around to help bring the title to Westwood.

Homma's other accomplishments included the 1994 and '97 Pac-10 all-around titles as well as the 1996 and '97 Pac-10 uneven bar crowns. She was twice named Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year (1995 and '97) and was also an eight-time All-American. During her career, she set and reset UCLA records in the all-around and was the second UCLA gymnast to receive 10.0s in two different events. In 1997, Homma was named UCLA's All-University Female Athlete of the Year and was a Honda Award nominee. She also excelled in the classroom, earning Pac-10 All-Academic honors on three occasions

Prior to UCLA, she was a member of the Canadian National Team and the 1991 Canadian champion in the floor exercise. Homma left her eternal mark in gymnastics with three moves named after her in the international code of points: the Homma Flip on beam and the Homma Flairs on beam and floor.

Valorie Kondos Field (1983-present)
Hall of Fame Class of 2010

Valorie Kondos Field became just the second head coach ever to be inducted while still coaching at UCLA, earning induction on October 1, 2010.

Upon arriving at UCLA in 1983 as a student coach, Valorie Kondos Field ascended the ranks as an assistant coach and choreographer, co-head coach (1991-94) and then sole head coach from 1995-2019. As head coach, Kondos Field positioned UCLA as the premier program in collegiate gymnastics by guiding it to an overall record of 535-121-3 with 15 Pac-12 titles, 20 Regional crowns and seven NCAA titles (1997, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2010 and 2018), as well as 32 NCAA individual titles during her tenure.

Kondos Field's 2018 squad won the NCAA title in dramatic comeback fashion, using a record-setting beam total of 49.750 in the final rotation to capture the victory. In 2010, UCLA won NCAA, Regional and Pac-10 championships and produced two NCAA individual champions. In 2003, the Bruins recorded an unprecedented five team scores of 198.0 or better en route to the NCAA title. The 2004 team set an NCAA Championship record by scoring 198.125 in the Super Six Team Finals. In 2001, UCLA gymnasts won the NCAA floor, uneven bars and all-around events, and every Bruin who competed earned All-America honors. That year, Kondos Field was voted the NACGC National Coach of the Year for the fourth time.

Kondos Field was honored in 2016 as the Pac-12 Gymnastics Coach of the Century, and in 2019, she received the UCLA Professional Achievement award for her superior achievements in the field.

Stella Umeh (1995-98)
Hall of Fame Class of 2012

An Oct. 12, 2012 inductee, Stella Umeh was a key member of UCLA's first NCAA Championship team in 1997. A 10-time All-American, Umeh captured the 1995 and 1998 NCAA floor exercise titles and was dominant at the 1995 Pac-10 Championships, winning the all-around, uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise titles. In 1998, she captured her second Pac-10 individual all-around title, along with individual titles in floor and beam.

During her career, Umeh was a member of Pac-10 Championship teams in 1995 and 1997, was named the 1998 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and earned a total of seven All-Pac-10 honors and 10 All-America honors.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, she competed for Canada at the 1992 Olympic Games and at the World Championships from 1991-93. In 1992, she qualified for event finals at the World Championships on both vault (8th place) and beam (5th place), and in 1993, she was 15th in the all-around and eighth on floor. At the national level, she was a two-time Canadian vault champion. After graduation, Umeh performed for five years with Cirque du Soleil.

Mohini Bhardwaj (1998-2001)
Hall of Fame Class of 2013

Mohini Bhardwaj became the second gymnast in as many years to be inducted on Oct. 12, 2013. Bhardwaj won two NCAA team and two NCAA individual titles from 1998-2001 and finished her career as an 11-time All-American and 2001 Honda Award winner. Bhardwaj set numerous scoring records at UCLA, including scoring the second-highest all-around total in NCAA history, 39.975, in 2001. She led UCLA to NCAA team titles in 2000 and 2001 and won the uneven bars in 2000 and floor exercise in 2001. Along with winning the Honda Award in 2001, she was also the Pac-10 and West Region Gymnast of the Year and the AAI Award-winner as the nation's top senior gymnast.

Bhardwaj continued her gymnastics career after graduation, winning the 2001 U.S. National Championship on vault and helping the U.S. win a bronze medal at the 2001 World Championships. In 2004, she earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team, where she served as team captain and led the U.S. to a silver medal. She also qualified for event finals on floor exercise, where she placed sixth. Bhardwaj is now the co-owner and club director at OOA Gymnastics in Bend, Oregon and began competitive weightlifting in 2018.

Onnie Willis (2000-03)
Hall of Fame Class of 2014

Onnie Willis received gymnastics' third-straight induction when she joined the class of 2014 on Oct. 10, 2014. Willis was a superstar on the competition floor and in the classroom. During her four years at UCLA, she won three NCAA team championships (2000, 2001, 2003), three Pac-10 team titles (2001-03) and four NCAA Regional team titles. In 2001, she became UCLA's first-ever NCAA all-around champion, and as a senior in 2003 won the Honda Award as the best collegiate gymnast in the nation. The 2003 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year held the school record for NCAA All-America honors with 16 and has a share of the school record on vault and floor, having scored a pair of perfect 10s on each event.

Academically, she received the 2003 NCAA Top VIII Award as well as a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship, and she earned Scholastic All-American honors and CoSIDA Academic All-District acclaim three times. Willis went on to earn a Ph.D in Developmental Psychology at NYU.

Jamie Dantzscher (2001-04)
Hall of Fame Class of 2016

Jamie Dantzscher was inducted into UCLA Athletics' Hall of Fame on Sept. 30, 2016. Dantzscher, an Olympic bronze medalist in 2000, cemented herself in Bruin lore the very first time she chalked up for a routine, scoring a perfect 10 on uneven bars in her collegiate debut. She is believed to be the first NCAA gymnast ever to score a perfect 10 on her first routine, and she went on to earn a school-record 28 10.0s in her career, including a national record seven in a row on floor exercise in 2002.

Dantzscher led UCLA to three NCAA team titles (2001, 2003 and 2004) and won four NCAA individual titles of her own, including the 2002 all-around, vault and floor exercise crowns, and the 2003 uneven bars title. She also won the Pac-10 bars and floor titles in 2002 and the floor title in 2001 and was the 2002 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and a three-time Pac-10 All-Academic honoree. The 15-time All-American and 2004 AAI Award winner was named to the Pac-12 All-Century Team in the all-around and floor exercise.

Kristen Maloney (2001-05)
Hall of Fame Class of 2017

Kristen Maloney's legacy with UCLA Gymnastics can be summed up in the team award that was named after her - the Kristen Maloney Heart of a Champion Award. The 2000 Olympic bronze medalist fought through multiple surgeries and a nearly career-ending bone infection to become a five-time NCAA champion and nine-time All-American.

Maloney helped lead UCLA to the 2001 NCAA title as a freshman but was forced to sit out both the 2002 and 2003 seasons due to complications from the surgeries. She returned in 2004 to help the Bruins win another NCAA team title in record-breaking fashion, and in 2005 she was the Honda Award winner, as well as the National, West Region and Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year. She won three events and the all-around at the 2005 Pac-12 Championships and finished her career by winning the vault and beam titles at the NCAA Championships.

Tasha Schwikert (2005-08)
Hall of Fame Class of 2020

Pac-12 Gymnast of the Century Tasha Schwikert made history as UCLA's first two-time NCAA all-around champion, bookending her career with wins as a freshman in 2005 and as a senior in 2008. She also added the NCAA uneven bars title in 2008.

A 12-time All-American, Schwikert won six Pac-10 titles in her career, including a near-sweep in 2007 with the all-around, vault, balance beam and floor exercise championships. She also won the Pac-10 all-around and uneven bars titles in 2005 and earned Pac-10 Freshman of the Year honors. In 2007, she was awarded Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year. Schwikert totaled four perfect 10s in her career, two each on uneven bars and floor exercise.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, Schwikert helped lead the U.S. to a bronze medal at the 2000 Olympics and to a gold medal at the 2003 World Championships. She was a two-time U.S. national all-around champion and was inducted into the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame in 2012.

Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom

Home to Bruin athletic teams since 1965, Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom is regarded as one of the finest all-around collegiate facilities in the nation and has been the site of numerous illustrious events, from NCAA Championships, Olympic gymnastics, presidential debates to award shows.

In 1984, the eyes of the world watched as Peter Vidmar, Mitch Gaylord and Tim Daggett led the USA men's gymnastics team to its first ever gold medal. All-around gold medalist Mary Lou Retton captured the hearts of the world with her gutty performance and bubbly personality.

In addition, Pauley Pavilion has served as the site for numerous NCAA events as well as concerts, weddings and the 1988 Presidential Debate between George Bush and Michael Dukakis. In 1994, Pauley Pavilion hosted the 75th Anniversary Convocation celebrating UCLA's years of academic achievement in which the keynote speaker was President Bill Clinton.

Pauley Pavilion is home to the UCLA Gymnastics team and was the site of the 1984, 1998, 2004 and 2013 NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships. In 2004, UCLA made history in its home arena by winning the national title in Pauley Pavilion with a Championship record score. The UCLA men's gymnastics team won both of their NCAA titles in Pauley Pavilion in 1984 and 1987.

The arena underwent a multi-million dollar renovation at the top of the decade and reopened in November 2012.

John Wooden Center

One of the most attractive buildings on the UCLA campus is the John Wooden Center, a 136,000 square foot recreation complex, named after the legendary UCLA basketball coach.

The building serves students, faculty and staff and houses UCLA Gymnastics' practice facility, Yates Gym. For the 2012 season, while Pauley Pavilion was undergoing a multi-million dollar renovation, the John Wooden Center hosted UCLA home events for the gymnastics, women's basketball and men's and women's volleyball teams.

Inside the building are nine racquetball courts, two squash courts, a rock-climbing wall, a strength and conditioning room, a basketball gymnasium with three regulation courts and seating for 2,000 people, a volleyball and badminton gymnasium, three dance studios, a gymnastics training center, a matted room for Judo and Karate classes, locker room and saunas, and numerous meeting rooms.

The office phone number for the Wooden Center is (310) 206-8307.

Martin Jarmond

Director of Athletics
1st Year at UCLA
UNC-Wilmington '01

Martin Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020 as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. The campaign has raised $121 million to date. Among the new ventures he brought to Boston College were a student-athlete fueling station, a program for first-generation student-athletes, and a fan council focused on improving the atmosphere and fan experience.

Boston College teams enjoyed on-the-field success during his tenure, with the football team playing in a bowl game each season, the women's lacrosse team reaching the national championship game in 2018, the 2019 women's field hockey team advancing to its first Final Four, and the men's and women's hockey teams combining for three conference championships in the last two years.

Academically, Boston College continued to thrive under Jarmond's leadership. The school ranks eighth in the nation with an overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 94% in all sports among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) schools, with 12 teams scoring a perfect 100 GSR. Boston College also ranks among the highest in the nation in Academic Progress Rate (APR). Six Eagles teams recently received the NCAA APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon teams finishing in the top 10% of their respective sport, based on the multi-year APR. Included in those six was football, one of only 13 football programs at the FBS level to earn a Public Recognition Award, and one of only five to earn an award for the last three years.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-to-day operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership.

Jarmond recently served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and is on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors. In 2017 and 2019, he was named to Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 40, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Prior to her stint at USC, Dr. Rivera was an Athletic Academic Counselor for the Student-Athlete Support Services Office at Ohio State University. During her time in Columbus, she was also a lecturer for the School of Physical Activity and Educational Services, as well as for the Athletics Department.

In June 2007, she received the N4A Professional Promise Award presented to a member who has dedicated their energy to the Association and its members. She has also presented at several conferences in regards to factors related to academic achievement and student-athlete retention, as well as the use of technology for reporting and increasing academic accountability in athletics.

Dr. Rivera earned her Doctor of Philosophy degree in Higher Education Administration at Ohio State University in August 2004 where her dissertation focused on the identification of key factors student-athletes perceived to be important to the college student-athlete retention process. She also earned her Master's degree in Educational Policy from the University of Pennsylvania and her Bachelor's degree in Social Ecology at UC Irvine, where she was a varsity soccer student-athlete.

A native of Southern California, Dr. Rivera currently resides in Marina Del Rey with her spouse and son.
